Bailey Morris Ltd

Propshaft Manufacturer and Component Distribution

Company Introduction

Bailey Morris Limited

Overview

Bailey Morris Ltd is an independent Propshaft manufacturer and Propshaft component distributor based in the U.K. Formed in 1977 we have over 38 years' experience within the Propshaft industry and are well established within the U.K. and overseas markets being accredited to ISO9001 / 2008. We also have a long standing alliance with Klein Gelenkwellen GmbH (a leading European Propshaft supplier of original equipment to several commercial vehicle manufacturers). We have acted as Klein Gelenkwellen's U.K. representative for over 30 years.

Component Parts Distribution

We currently stock over 4,000 Propshaft related lines and have an inventory value in excess of 2.2m/GBP. We service over 1,000 customers within 40 countries. We also work with well-established courier and freight forwarding & logistics companies such as DHL, TNT and Kuehne & Nagel to service each customer's individual requirement.

Our current parts catalogue is available through our website www.baileymorris.co.uk and is free to download. You can also view our new product announcements & special offers. Using OE numbers or VIN numbers, we have the means to identify the correct propshafts and components for your vehicle.

Manufacturing and Capability

Working from our manufacturing, storage and distribution sites in St Neots, Cambridgeshire and Feltham, West London, Bailey Morris Ltd has the capacity to prepare, assemble and balance approximately 400 new propshafts per week.
